I. 교과목 정보 Course Overview

1. 교과목 개요 Course Description

This course is an introduction to the linguistic system of English, designed for students with no previous knowledge of the subject. Various sub-fields of linguistics (i.e., pragmatics, semantics, syntax, morphology, phonology, language variation, and first-language acquisition) will be covered with abundant data of English. Students are expected to acquire a linguistic view on the structure of English. Students are required to take two exams, to submit two assignments and a short essay, and to participate actively in class discussion.
