I. 교과목 정보 Course Overview

1. 교과목 개요 Course Description

This course aims to provide an introduction to contemporary issues in Chinese culture and society. It will not only deliver a range of knowledge on socio-cultural phenomena in contemporary Chinese society, but also help the students to have their own perspectives on the complexity of Chinese social changes and the dynamics of cultural unity and diversity. Lectures and readings are designed to examine both the macro level processes of social change and the everyday experiences of individuals. It particularly focuses on social institutions, cultures, the formations of identities, and inequalities in contemporary Chinese society. See the course schedule below for more details.
