4. Course Objectives

Aims for students to speak Korean necessary for daily life and to learn appropriate expressions in order to successfully handle uncomplicated communicative tasks such as ordering, requesting, recommending, reserving, etc. Students will be able to read and write advertisements, notices, e-mail, and daily life-based articles. Students will also be able to learn about Korean traditional festivals, food, traditional markets, etc. which are related to ordinary life and culture to broaden their understanding of Korean society. Students will be able to develop an appreciation of literature and improve their reading comprehension through exposure to poems, traditional fairy tales, etc.

5. Evaluation System

☐ Relative evaluation    ☒ Absolute evaluation    ☐ Others : _____

– Explanation of evaluation system:

- (1) The assessment areas of mid-term and final exams are speaking, listening, reading, writing and vocabulary & grammar. Speaking test is conducted by 1:1 interview and making conversation. The format of listening, reading, writing and vocabulary & grammar is a written test. If absent on a exam day, there is no chance of a supplementary examination. A supplementary examination for the absence can be considered only when a relevant document is submitted(e. g. for medical, legal, or professional reasons).
- (2) The quiz counts for 10 percent of the overall assessment. If absent on a quiz day, there will be no chance of a make-up quiz.
- (3) Assignment includes homeworks, presentations and etc. which are given during class.
- (4) 20 absences will cost F regardless of exam results. Attendance will be checked as the class begins, and three times of being late or leaving early will be counted as one absence.<sup>1)</sup>
- (5) This course will be evaluated on an absolute grading scale.

Midterm Exam	Final Exam	Quizzes	Presentation & Assignments	Participation & Others
35%	35%	10%	10%	10%
